ABCAC is a member of the International Certification Reciprocity
Consortium / Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse
(IC&RC / AODA)

APPLICATION CRITERIA

1. Applicant Name: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

2. All applicants must submit documentation for review and be approved for the IC&RC examination. All applicants will be required to pass the IC&RC exam for appropriate certification.

Please mark for which certification you are applying:

_____ Certified Addiction Counselor (CAC)

_____ Certified Alcohol & Drug Abuse Counselor (CADAC)

_____ Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor (AADC)

Only the CADAC and AADC are eligible for reciprocity with IC&RC member boards.

3. Applicant must have the Supervised Work Log and the Counselor Evaluation Form completed by an immediate supervisor, which must be sent directly to ABCAC by the supervisor.

4. EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS

You may apply for one of three certificates.

	High School Diploma or GED	AA Degree
Certified Addiction Counselor (CAC)	200 clock hours There must be 90 hours in addictions studies. The remaining hours can fall within behavioral sciences.	250 clock hours There must be 90 hours in addictions studies. The remaining hours can fall within behavioral sciences.
Certified Alcohol & Drug Abuse Counselor (CADAC)	Bachelor's Degree
	200 clock hours There must be 90 hours in addictions studies and 90 hours in counseling. The remaining hours can fall within behavioral sciences.
Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor (AADC)	Master's Degree
	180 hours of alcohol and drug counseling specific education

In addition to the clock hours outlined above, the applicant must have 6 hours education in Professional Ethics and Responsibilities and 4 hours in HIV/AIDS Education.

Education is defined as formal classroom education (workshops, seminars, institutes, in-services and college/university work).

1 College Semester Unit = 15 Clock Hours

All education hours must be documented.

Education must be specifically related to the knowledge and skills necessary to perform the tasks within each IC&RC performance domain:

- 1 - Screening, Assessment, and Engagement
- 2 - Treatment Planning, Collaboration, and Referral
- 3 - Counseling
- 4 - Professional and Ethical Responsibilities

5. WORK EXPERIENCE

All qualifying supervised work experience must be completed within six (6) years of applying for certification. Work experience is defined as full or part-time, paid or voluntary, working directly with clients with a diagnosis of alcohol and/or other drug abuse or dependency (AODA).

Supervised work experience is defined as experience in which the counselor receives clinical supervision. Clinical supervision is a specific aspect of staff development dealing with the clinical skills and competencies for persons providing counseling. The format for supervision is commonly one-to-one and/or small groups on a regular basis. Methods for review often include case review and case discussion, utilizing direct observation of a counselor’s clinical work.

Supervised work experience must be in the IC&RC performance domains of assessment, counseling, case management, education and professional responsibility.

Unsupervised work experience may not be substituted for the experience requirement. All experience must be documented. A CADAC applicant may exchange one year of the three-year work requirement with a bachelor’s or advanced degree in Behavioral Sciences. Minimum requirements:

Please mark which educational requirements you meet:

	Certified Addiction Counselor (CAC)	2 years or 4,000 hours working with substance abuse clients
	Certified Alcohol & Drug Abuse Counselor (CADAC)	3 years or 6,000 hours working with substance abuse clients
	Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor (AADC)	2,000 hours of supervised alcohol and drug counseling specific work experience

REQUIREMENTS FOR RECERTIFICATION

Certification by the Arizona Board for Certification of Addiction Counselors is valid for two years.

To be recertified you must verify forty (40) clock hours of Continuing Education related to substance abuse during the past two years.

At least twenty (20) of these hours must be acquired outside your agency.

Three hours of CEU's in Ethics and three hours of CEU's in Cultural Diversity training.

Please be prepared to offer genuine verification of training by providing a copy of a certificate of participation or a letter from the training source verifying participation and number of clock hours of instruction. (Grade reports from an academic institution are acceptable.)

For outside training to be accepted by ABCAC, it must contribute to upgrading your skills and/or knowledge in Addiction Counseling and related behavioral health problems (see Core Functions and Global Criteria). Examples of acceptable training are:

Junior College or University courses in Counseling, Psychology, Sociology or related fields.

Schools, workshops, seminars which offer education and training in addictions or related behavioral health fields and provide verifiable documentation of participation including number of clock hours of instruction received.

Inservice training must also be documented. You will need to provide a list of specific topics covered and the amount of time spent on each.

NO MORE THAN 20 HOURS WILL BE ALLOWED FOR INSERVICE TRAINING.
